How to Develop Program Review for Effectiveness and Enhancement (PREE) Training by Syed Waqar ul Hasan

Salim Habib University organized a training session on “How to Develop Program Review for Effectiveness and Enhancement (PREE)” on 28 January 2026, led by Syed Waqar-ul-Hasan, Director QEC & Regulatory Affairs. The session focused on strengthening participants' understanding of the PREE process and its role in enhancing academic programs and institutional quality.

The training provided practical guidance on preparing effective program reviews, evaluating academic performance, identifying areas for improvement, and developing actionable enhancement plans. The session served as a valuable platform for faculty and academic professionals to strengthen their quality assurance practices and promote a culture of continuous improvement.
